Joins Musical Staff

Miss Gloria Savcheff, daughter of Mrs. Andrew Savcheff of this town will be graduated from Boston University the last of May and in the fall will assume a teaching position in the music department of the Northfield School for Girls.

Miss Savcheff was graduated in 1943 from the school in which she will teach and will soon complete her course of four years at Boston University where she was considered an exceptional student with marked ability.

During her university years Miss Savcheff has participated in the following activities: Sophomore class secretary, junior class president, senior class secretary, Alpha Gamma Delta Sorority, vice-president of Mu Phi Epsilon, professional music sorority, recording secretary of Cooperative House, vice-president for two years at Harriet E. Richards House, member of the Hub Board, publicity girl representative, member of Scarlet Key, member of the All-U Council for two years, chairman of Red Feather drive at the College of Music, director of the Christmas Pageant at Harriet E. Richards House, chairman of Senior Dutch treat, member of Who's Who in American universities and colleges, and junior prom "princess."

Senior Class Day

On Thursday, April 25, the seniors at Northfield School for Girls celebrated Class Day. In traditional style they breakfasted late and spent the morning visiting the Northfield Chateau, Moody Museum, and American Youth Hostel. Shortly before noon the class hiked to a nearby farm for a picnic lunch and program of singing, games, and stunts, and the Class Willand Prophecy and Who's Who were read. In the evening the annual Class Day banquet was held at the Northfield Hotel and students were received by Miss Mira B. Wilson, President William E. Park, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin R. Andrews, senior class teacher, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Partridge and Miss Mariatta Tower. Following the dinner there were brief talks by Miss Wilson, Dr. Park, Mrs. Andrews, as well as the reading of the Class History by Rebecca Lambie of Westfield, N. J., the delivering of the Class Oration by the vice-president of the class, Jane Kendall of Lewiston, Maine, and the reading of the class by Ellen Wiese of Longmeadow. Meredith Cushman of New York City is class president.

Boston Choir Festival

The Boston festival of church choir music will be held on Sunday, May 4, in the Boston Arena when individual massed choirs will render a program containing some of the finest musical scores of church selections. Nineteen members of the choir of the Center Congregational Church of Brattleboro will participate, this church having a most efficient and capable choir. Rec. Edward C. Dahl, formerly pastor of the Northfield Congregational Church is now minister of the Brattleboro congregation and will accompany the choir of his church to Boston.

County Church Session

In the Congregational Church at Sunderland next Sunday, May 4, will be held the annual spring meeting of the Franklin County Association. A large delegation from the local church will attend including its minister, Rev. Joseph W. Reeves. There will be afternoon and evening sessions with supper served at 6 o'clock. The first session will begin at 3.15 and after the preliminary program of service and music, Dr. Douglas Horton, minister of the General Council, will deliver an address. The speaker in the evening will be Dr. Samuel Williams, of Amherst College.

County Brotherhoods

Over four hundred members of the various church brotherhoods federated in the County Church Brotherhood Federation gathered at Orange Monday evening, April 28. Supper was served in the vestries of the Congregational, Lutheran, Baptist and Methodist churches. The attendance crowded all places. Adjourning to the Congregational Church the delegates were welcomed by the ministers of the churches and the president of the Brotherhood, Edward G. Merz, responded. The speaker was Rev. Franklin D. Loehr, of Florence, whose subject was "My Congressman," and he handled his subject in a very interesting manner, both entertaining and instructive. Mr. Loehr was chaplain with a combat crew in World War II and is executive secretary of the Springfield Council of Churches. He is also a writer and author. There was a good-sized delegation from the Brotherhood of the local Congregational Church and South Vernon Church present.

The Sacred Concert

The fifty-third annual concert of Sacred Music will be sung in the Auditorium by the students of the Northfield Schools Sunday afternoon, May 11, at 3:45. The program will consist of both hymns and anthems, and some of the more difficult numbers will be sung by selected groups of specially trained singers.

The chorus will number about 1000 voices, half from Northfield School for Girls and half from Mount Hermon School for Boys. The conductor will be Albert R. Raymond, choral director of the Northfield Schools and the orchestra will be directed by Milton J. Aronson of Springfield.

Admission to the Auditorium will be by tickets, most of which have been reserved for the parents of upper-class students. Requests from alumni and friends are being filled to the extent of the Auditorium capacity. Those unable to gain admission will be accommodated in Russell Sage Chapel, to which the program will be carried by wire. The concert will not be broadcast.

Deserved Promotion

It is now Lieut.-Col. William Marshall, the title having been conferred upon Mr. Marshall as he received his discharge from Army service. He recently returned to Northfield for terminal leave and now with Mrs. Marshall is spending a week at Split Rock Lodge in the Pocono Mountains where their son, William Marshall, Jr., is employed. Many friends will extend congratulations to the Lieut.-Colonel. He deserved the promotion for his war effort.

Plans Committee Meet

S. W. Hayes, of Fitchburg, was the guest of the Town World War Memorial Building plans committee Thursday night, April 24. He is the senior member of the architectural group known as S. W. Haynes and Associates, who have designed many important New England schools and he was able to give the committee valuable assistance and advice in planning the proposed memorial gymnasium.

The committee, which was appointed after the annual town meeting in February, is making an intense study of possible locations and designs for a building intended to serve both school and community purposes. It is hoped that a preliminary report will be ready for presentation to the town in the fall.

Members of the committee are: Frank W. Pearsall, chairman; Raymond Miller, secretary; George Carr, Sidney Given, Dr. Richard G. Holton, Irving J. Lawrence, Mrs. Philip Mann, Jr., Mrs. Frank Montague, Mrs. Wayne B. Wells.

Married In Putney

The marriage of Miss June Isabelle Stockwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund D. Stockwell, of East Putney, Vt., and William Donald Ross, son of Mr. Joseph E. Ross, of this town, took place Saturday, April 26, at 2 o'clock in the Federated Church in Putney with Rev. L. H. Fairbanks officiating. Mrs. Gertrude H. Gibson, of West Northfield, presided at the organ.

The maid of honor, Miss Lillian Bosquet, of Brattleboro, had a gown of pink and carried a bouquet of matching carnations.

Edmund J. Cadran, of Greenfield, was best man and Constance Truman, of Brattleboro, was flower girl. David B. Truman, of Brattleboro, was ring bearer.

The bride's gown was of traditional white trimmed with lace. Her fingertip veil was also trimmed with lace and her bouquet of white carnations was arranged in a shower.

A reception followed at Pierce's Hall in East Putney. The couple will make their home in Brattleboro.

At Northfield Schools

The annual spring meeting of the board of trustees of the Northfield Schools will be held in Kenarden Hall Saturday morning, May 3, at which time the budget for the year 1947-48 will be approved and reports will be made by the president, principal and headmaster. On Friday evening, May 2, the trustees and their wives will be the guests of Dr. William E. Park at dinner at the Northfield Hotel.

On Sunday, May 4, guest speakers in the chapels will be Dr. J. Edgar Park, presidentemeritus of Wheaton College, Norton, Mass., who will preach in Mount Hermon Memorial Chapel at 10.30 A. M., and Dr. Douglas Horton, minister of the General Council of the Congregational Christian Churches of the U.S.A., who will lead the 11 o'clock service in Sage Chapel.

Joint Alumnae Picnic

The Worcester, Springfield and Franklin County Northfield Clubs will hold a joint picnic at the faculty house at Mount Hermon School on Saturday, May 17. The gathering will be welcomed and called to order at 12.20 noon for a short business session with lunch to follow. Local alumnae who plan to attend are asked to report to Mrs. Axel Forslund, of Mount Hermon and state whether they will bring a salad or 50 cents, and the name of their guest. All are welcome at the meeting for "Northfield girls—past, present and future," at Music Hall, Northfield, at 10.30 A. M. and at the repetition of Tree Day dances on the Northfield campus at 3 o'clock.

Dogs And More Dogs

Down on Main Street near Bronson Inn a most attractive sign points the way to the antique shop, tourist home and resident of Mott and Jessie Guhse. It is located on the hillside in a beautiful home with a wonderful view and the many visitors and tourists who have already made their way there are enthusiastic. The Guhses are lovers of dogs and have a number of excellent ones always about but now Mr. and Mrs. H. Keith Jacobus, of New York, have joined them to assist in the tourist business and maintaining a kennel business with high-grade pedigreed cocker spaniels. They have at the present time fourteen animals and two weeks ago eight little cockers were born. An excellent place to visit is the house on the hillside.

Town Topics

The May session of Superior Court held in Greenfield will be presided over by Judge Walter L. Collins of Boston. It will begin the 12th.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Schepp have moved into their new home in Mountain Park off Winchester Road. The name of the cottage is "Lynwood."

Mrs. Cossett Passes

Mrs. Virginia M. Cossett, a native of this town and wife of John Cossett, of Lake Pleasant, died suddenly at the Farren Memorial Hospital after several weeks of illness on Thursday afternoon, April 24, in the 32d year of her age.

She was born September 16, 1914, the daughter of Lucky O. and Myrtle (Mattoon) Clapp. She attended the local schools here and the Northfield School for Girls. For the past twelve years she resided in Lake Pleasant where she had served as president of the Woman's Club and at present its secretary. She was interested in the Extension Service, specially in the effort of the 4-H group and was a member of the Montague Grange.

She is survived by her husband, five daughters, a brother, Raymond Clapp, of Weston, and a sister, Mrs. Carroll H. Miller, of this town; also her father. Funeral services were held last Saturday in the Baptist Church of Turners Falls with Rev. W. A. Knight officiating and burial was in Center Cemetery in Northfield.

AQUELLA

CONTROLS WATER LEAKAGE, DAMPNES OR SEEPAGE INSIDE OR OUTSIDE . . . ABOVE OR BELOW GROUND

★ KEEP YOUR CELLAR DRY ★

If you're a homeowner cursed with wet walls or a leaking cellar, AQUELLA brings new hope indeed. For even though you have been discouraged by the failure of other methods, remember AQUELLA succeeds under the severest seepage conditions — such as those encountered in mine shafts, tunnels, pump pits, cisterns, swimming pools, and countless other constructions.

YOU CAN LAUGH AT WIND-DRIVEN RAIN IF YOU APPLY AQUELLA TO LEAKING WALLS.

THE SCIENTIFIC MINERAL SURFACE COATING FOR ALL POROUS MASONRY

The principle on which AQUELLA works is relatively simple, yet scientifically sound in every respect. Mixed with water, and scrubbed into the face of the masonry, its FINELY GROUND inorganic ingredients PENETRATE INTENSELY TO FILL, close and seal the tiniest pores. Then, because of its chemical property, an expanding reaction ensues to set up a harder, firmer bond when water contacts it. As a further advantage, AQUELLA leaves a brilliant white finish that does not powder, peel, flake or rub off, and can be painted over with any color. AQUELLA is also available in Grey, Green, Buff and Rose.

AQUELLA

The price is reasonable — you can buy it in bags NOW FOR ONLY

$3.95

It is mixed with water according to directions and one bag will cover from 60 to 120 square feet. You will be satisfied with results.

For Salvation Army

The Annual Maintenance Appeal of the Salvation Army is being conducted in Northfield and district, with Ross L. Spencer, as chairman, William F. Hoehn, as treasurer and the following local committee: Rev. Benjamin R. Andrews, Rev. George A. Bronson, George W. Carr, Dr. F. Wilton Dean, Grove W. Deming, H. F. Millard, A. Gordon Moody, Ernest A. Parker and Miss Mira B. Wilson. A quota of $710 has been set as the objective of the campaign and the chairman, treasurer and sponsoring committee are confident of success.

Letters of appeal have been mailed to the many friends of the Salvation Army. Quietly, unassumingly, the Salvation Army carries on.

"For eight years," the announcement stated, "The Salvation Army has dedicated itself to the task of stimulating the vital forces of faith in the hearts and souls of men. Today our Army encircles the world; it preaches the Gospel and gives material aid in 97 countries and colonies. It met the demands of the war years because it was ready, but new problems and more exacting responsibilities—a new challenge—lie ahead. For America—and for the world—The Salvation Army must keep on 'Marching Forward.'"

Town Topics

In our issue of April 19 through a typeline misplacement it appeared in the account of the Johnson-Dresser wedding that the bride was in the Army when it should have been "the groom attended the Northfield schools and was in the Army over two years, serving in the Pacific." Sorry the error.

Mrs. G. B. Scholten of Neshanic, N. J., is expected to arrive next week to reopen her cottage on Rustic Ridge.

Town Topics

Mrs. James Parker of Chappaqua, N. Y., is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy N. Barrows of Winchester Road.

The Ladies' Sewing Society of the CtnemchoalChrtie gubharetgves -n Congregational Church met in the vestry Thursday for an all-day session with luncheon at noon.

The Women's Guild of the Congregational Church will serve a public supper in the vestry of the church Thursday evening, May 15.

Buffum's Filling Station for Texaco products of gasoline and oils is installing a much larger storage tank for its increased business demand.

When the water was turned on to the above ground pipes supplying the summer homes on Rustic Ridge, it was discovered that considerable damage had been made by last winter's snow and ice. Repairs are now being made.

Mrs. L. L. Moody, former member of the faculty of the School for Girls, who spent the winter in St. Petersburg, Fla., has returned to her home in Springfield.

Officers of the Franklin County Hermon Club who guide its affairs are Robert Parmenter of Amherst, president; Merritt C. Skilton of this town, vice-president; George R. Lawrence of Mount Hermon, secretary-treasurer. At its recent annual dinner gathering a large membership was reported.

Luman A. Barber, having sold his residence on Main Street opposite the library, has begun the erection of a new house on the lot north of his former house. Leavis and Bolton have the contract.

Now that daylight saving time is in effect having begun last Sunday morning we are enjoying an added hour of light each evening and will do so until September 28 when standard time returns.

My Rosary

This perplexing illness shall be unto me as a friend. Under the Disciplines of its needful ministry Faith shall not be dimmed nor Fretful care deny me of my peace! For when the high-priest of pain Has shriven me and departed, Leaving me face to face With the threatened loneliness Of my own poor company, I shall blow the dust From neglected memories Of my golden yesterdays, and— Like a saint in deep devotion, Lingerin' o'er each bead— Make of them a rosary; Following where their fancies lead.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Browning of the Farms were given a wedding anniversary party last week by the members of their family. They have been married thirty-two years.

Mr. and Mrs. David B. Stevens who are residents of Mountain Park have purchased a lot near Mount Hermon School from Harry C. Holten upon which they have begun the erection of a dwelling to serve as a home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Whitney with their son, Richard, Mrs. Clarence Griggs and Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Newton were visitors in Troy, N. Y., last week with Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Gutbrodt.

The 1948 Republican Convention for the nomination of candidates for president and vice-president of the party will be held in Philadelphia the week of June 20, 1948. A Northfield resident expects to be named as a delegate.

A deed recently recorded in the Registry reveals that Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Gingrass have purchased the house and land on Parker Avenue occupied by them from the Western Mass. Electric Co. of Greenfield.

A middle-aged woman stopped a man about 45 on a downtown street corner.

"Why aren't you in the army?" she demanded in that policeman manner some women wear so naturally.

The over-age man looked up.

"For the same reason," he murmured, "that you aren't in the 'Follies.'"

Johnny was not at the dinner table when his father came home, for his mother had sent him upstairs to bed for swearing.

"Swearing?" bellowed the father. "I'll teach him to swear!" He dashed up the stairs and midway, stubbed his toe, stumbled and crashed his chin on the step.

When the atmosphere cleared a little, Johnny's mother said sweetly, "No more now, dear. You've given him enough for one lesson."

Green hand: "My baby chicks are all dying!"

Adviser: "What are you feeding them?"

Green hand: "Feeding them? Why nothing, I supposed the old hen gave them all the milk they needed."

An Irishman had been thrown over a fence by an enraged bull. He had just recovered when he noticed the bull pawing the ground and furiously tossing his head.

"If it wasn't for your bowin' and scrapin'," said Mike, "I'd think you threw me over on purpose!"

An American in England was giving some illustrations of the size of his country.

"You can board a train in the State of Texas at dawn," he said, impressively, "and twenty-four hours later you'll still be in Texas!"

"Yes," said one of his English listeners, with feeling, "we've got trains like that here, too."

Mother to daughter: "I don't want you to marry, I've seen the folly of it."

Daughter: "But, Mother, I want to see the folly of it, too!"

Teacher: "What is it that binds us together, sustains us and makes us better than nature intended?"

Tommy: "Girdles."

Young wife: "Now, Bill, I want you to see the minister and see about having the baby christened."

Bill (shipyard worker): "Do you mean to say you are going to let someone hit that little thing over the head with a bottle?"

Haughty Lady (who has just purchased a stamp): "Must I put it on myself?"

Post Office Assistant (very politely): "Not necessarily, ma'am; it will probably accomplish more if you put it on the letter."

"What's the cat's name?"

"Ben Hur."

"How'd you happen to choose that?"

"Well, we called him Ben till he had kittens."

Poise is the quality that enables you to buy a new pair of shoes without seeming to be aware of the hole in your sock.

"I tell you I won't have this room," protested the old lady to the bellboy who was accompanying her. "I'm not going to spend good money for a closet with a folding bed. If you think that just because I'm from the country—"

"Get in, lady, get in," the bellboy cut in wearily. "This isn't your room. This is the elevator."

Wife: "Goodness, George, this isn't our baby. It's the wrong carriage."

Husband: "Shut up. It's a better carriage."

Enjoy Washington Trip

The Seniors of the Northfield High School have returned from their visit to Washington accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Chester Parker. very good, good time. Prizes were awarded by number in profusion.

Town Topics

Miss Margaret A. Goodridge of Topsfield who is now a student at Tufts College, will be queen of the Junior Prom held today, May 2, on the Medford campus. She is a graduate of the Northfield School for Girls class of 1944.

The new directory of summer residents is being completed and reveals many changes in last year's list. The old lists are obsolete as many cottages have changed ownership. We hope the 1947 list can be placed in print soon.

Summer Residents Coming

Many residents of Mountain Park are now occupying their homes or will arrive the coming week, among them
Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Barfitt, Mr. and Mrs. David Stevens, Mrs. Grace C.
Cornell, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Schepp,
Miss Ethel Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs.
Oscar E. Coburn, Mr. and Mrs. Frank
N. Ray, and in the Highlands Miss
Elsie Scott and Rev. and Mrs. Loring
Chase.

EDITOR'S NOTE

We call attention to the fact that two solicitations for funds are under way here.

The plea of the Salvation Army for support on its work and that of the Boy Scouts to sustain its effort are both worthy of consideration by the people of Northfield.

THE EDITOR.

"My wife is an angel in three ways," insisted Mr. Brown.

"In what ways?" asked his companion.

"First, she's always up in the air.
Second, she's always harping. And third, she never has an earthly thing."

The father of a small boy gave him a dollar for his birthday. The boy spent the afternoon going the rounds of the tradesmen and having them change the dollar, first into silver, then back into a bill, and so on. When the father heard of it, he asked the reason.

"Well," said the little lad, "sooner or later somebody is going to make a mistake, and it ain't going to be me."
